Interesting idea. Simple controls, just point the reticule at a meteor and jump. Would be cool if there were some actual physics but hey, for 3 bucks, not too bad.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=68R1nLUpJfs>. Very simple, yet very hard and fun platformer jumping game, you'll have to jump from steriod to steriod and collect spaceship parts before you run out of oxygen. I had a lot of fun playing it and you just have to get used to the controls :)

I've made a gameplay review of my experince with the game, you can make my day by watching it!
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5\_Q15ijZqnQ. As i personally know the creator I've have seen the game devolping and even a single time tried what i would like to refer to as version 1.0 where you had a third person view and the game was fairly decent and that was the version i got to get a quick try with, now to what i refer as version 2.0 or the first person version, this really blew my mind, the game seemed to have much more potential and actual meaning of what you've had to do.

I like how the creators wasnt afraid to change their game they have thought of which shows a good sign in game devolping, there is small bugs here and there but I've seen worse bugs that could ruin games so im going to accept that, it is after all just a "low tier cost game" that have actully been spend alot of time in devolping as alot of the stages at one point were impossible to complete, so they retried everything and fixed every single world so the game actully were ready.

For 4 euro this game pays itself you can try speedrunning with or against your'e friends for some really nice and fun moments or if you are just looking for some casual gaming this game is great.

Please note even tho i know one of the creators, this is my opinion on the game what people think of it so far can be very diffrent as this game isn't for everyone so make sure you would enjoy this type of game before you just buy it and just gives it a bad review because you didn't enjoy it, and yes the game do lack a an tutorial and us who know the creators has notified them of it.
